

MISSION STATEMENT

The Janine Bowring Foundation is committed to bridging the gap between impoverished children and their families in developing countries and the developed world. Most impoverished citizens of the developing nations lack the basic essentials of life, namely food, water and shelter. The JBF is committed to providing:

- Food
- Clean water
- Educational materials
- Healthy lifestyles for those families less fortunate.

JBF is not affiliated with any religious, political or government sectors.